Losing Streak Ends for Legion

The first really came yesterday in the longest losing streak in the 11-month span of Lloyd Meyer's leadership of the Arlington Heights Legion junior baseball team.

The Big Blue stepped in after a 7-3 decision behind Bob Higgins, Sam Shanks, the left arm of Park Ridge, who...

Hit Thru Your Ball Says Pro

By CHUCK PEDERSEN
Golf Pro

It's a simple thing to say - "hit thru your ball" - but it's a beautiful follow-through with the club to complete each shot.

WHEN A GOLFER considers his "through" the ball, the momentum carries the club to the ball, the club to the ball, the club to the ball...

Jack Klemke believes that the distance his shorters are based on comes from good follow-through and the strength in his legs, rather than from arm, wrist, or hands.

A point to remember is that the club should swing as far to the follow - through as it did in the backswing. This will get all about - except the pitch and run-up shots.

FOR CONSISTENT good golf, it's wise to play all shots fully - with full backswing and follow-through - avoid those half shots.

Last-Inning Homer by Vetter Wins Senior All-Star Clash

A ninth-inning homer by a teammate shared by John Vetter sparked the Indians to a 5-3 victory over the Senior Division All-Stars yesterday at Park Ridge Park.

The exhibition game, which pits the Senior Division Indians against an all-star team of players from the league, was played at Park Ridge park in the home of the team, which McDonald led off with a triple. Vetter's home brought home with the game-winning run.

The win went to Ron Heister, manager of the team, and gave up only three earned runs and a pair of walks. Due to pitching limitations outplayed in the ninth.

AT THE TIME of the departure he had cut the All-Star, allowing only three hits and striking out six without striking a walk.

Heister gave up three runs in the eighth but got credit for the win on the Indians' 10th-inning rally.

John McDonald's double was the only other extra-base hit in the game.

THE NORTH had the South in a record of the rivalry between the two teams.

The National Division 10-5 triumph came on the wings of a 12th-inning homer by the pitcher of Steve Bialik, Mike Lindstrom.

Simplified Favorites

Mother Can Enjoy Family Picnic, Too

"Oh, boy, Mommy," said a little boy (maybe yours). "It's a great day for a picnic."

A picnic, as every little boy knows, is lots of fun. But sometimes, it's not too much fun for his mother.

For one thing, she may find a picnic a good deal of work, with preparing the food and packing it up for transport.

For another, she may be tired of preparing children's picnic fare, foods like ham, hot beans and potato salad.

If this is the case at your house, try the old formula just once more in a simplified, better tasting offering.

Combine the ham slices and potato salad in instant "macaroni"; a meat finger food.

Use mashed potatoes from an evaporator in a salad that combines potato granules, minced celery and hard-boiled eggs.

With a flavor of minced onion and prepared yellow mustard, it's delicious and saves time.

Also, try picnic-style salads, dressed with Worcestershire sauce, chili sauce and French dressing. Spoon the beans into plastic forks.

HAM AND POTATO SALAD LOGS
1 evaporator (4-serving) French's Instant Mashed Potatoes granules
1 evaporator French's Instant Mashed Onions
1 evaporator French's Prepared Yellow Mustard

Family favorites like a picnic are shown in slightly different guises. The potato salad, made quickly with instant mashed potatoes, is served in ham slices rolled up jelly-roll fashion. The baked beans are mixed with ham, Worcestershire sauce, chili sauce and French dressing.

- 1/2 cup finely diced celery
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1 hard-boiled egg, chopped
- 2 slices baked ham (about 12 in.)

Prepare mashed potatoes as evaportizer directs; stir in color and mustard. Let cool a few minutes; add celery, mayonnaise, and eggs. Spread slices of ham with potato mixture; roll up as for jelly roll. Chill several hours. 4 servings.

- PALEO-ZEINCH BEANS
1 can (1 lb.) baked beans
2 slices cooked ham, cubed
1 tablespoon chili sauce
2 tablespoons French Dressing Sauce
1 teaspoon French's Worcestershire Sauce

Combine all ingredients. Chill or serve at room temperature. If preferred hot, place over moderate heat just long enough to become bubbly hot. 4 servings.

Afghan Club To Hold Show

Amen dog owners are combining, grooming and training their Afghan hounds in preparation for the July 10 match of The Afghan Hound Club of Greater Chicago.

The event, which will begin at 11 a.m. in the Aragon Ballroom, Arlington Heights, will include dog races and a picnic. Entries will close at 10:30 p.m.

Co-chairman of the show are Mrs. William Jones, 1227 N. Lincoln road, Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Lewis Seidenberg of Wilmette.

AFGHAN hounds must be at least two months old and registered with the American Kennel Club in order to enter the match. Owners must pay a $1.50 entry fee for their dogs and entrance in advance or $2 if they register the day of the show. Spectators will be admitted free. Entrance may register by writing Mrs. Jones or Mrs. Seidenberg at their home address.

Mrs. Dorey Abrams of Ohio will judge the match. Bitch and dog food will be provided to winners.

Things to Remember When Hiring a Sitter

Besides swimming, running, golfing and playing tennis, babysitting is one of the most popular American summer pastimes.

The babysitting business is big, and parents are invited to consider, backyard parties and the like.

On the other hand, the sitter should be confident of her safety and the safety of her charges, children and parents.

A couple who hire a babysitter under 18 is one for which parents are responsible for establishing rules. If they care for their children, the couple won't be pushed around by them when they want to play the game they wish.

On the other hand, the sitter should be protected against a couple who might want to take advantage of her.

ter and making her working conditions pleasant.

"Inquire about the sitter from others who have hired her. The sitter should know about the family and not be considered working for it."

"Provide a list of emergency telephone numbers, special feeding instructions and other reminders to help the sitter handle the situation."

"The sitter should be able to take care of the situation if a taxi is provided for her."

"Don't expect a sitter to be a maid and wash dishes, vacuum or do household chores unless you have made a specific agreement with her. Degree her the limitations of cleaning supplies in case a child spills something."

"Leave a firm bedtime, mealtime and playtime schedule. Tell the sitter what—if any—television programs you think a sitter is allowed to watch."

Robert Gillette is workshop director.

Pay the babysitter immediately.

Clearbrook Trainees Dinner Dance

About 40 mentally retarded young adults have been invited to a dinner dance Wednesday, July 13 at the Clearbrook Center for the Retarded in Rolling Meadows.

The young adults are trainees in the Clearbrook workshop and vocational training center of Clearbrook, located at 3201 W. Campbell.

Order guests will be young persons from the County Side Center for the Retarded in Rolling Meadows.

Geraniums in the Sky

By Catherine O'Donnell

When Carl Kabin, owner of the Charles Kabin and Son Nursery in Arlington Heights, went to bed on a flower planting job that would bring up the Chicago Press Club, according to O'Donnell, the Club Bulletin, "the tool zone of several working press members who were present" and volunteered to provide the plants and the labor. It was no task involving the heavy, dirt-filled planter boxes and tubs into place and planting appropriate blooms.

Carl spent the afternoon converting the outdoor area into a "vermilion garden in the sky."

The membership is led by Carl, even though he looked on the labor from the cool comfort of the adjoining lounge. Carl's arrangement resulted in dramatic floral effect.

In a way, Carl had the last word. The various members could admire the beauty of the flowers. They could smell them, but they couldn't smell them.

The garden project was complete with succulents, dry cactus, Swiss spinnage fern, celadon, geraniums and petunias.

No Place

Another local family, who to remain nameless so that they will not offend the Arlington Heights, said of their trip to Mount Pleasant in Kentucky.

"We had no reservations, so we drove around for hours and we finally found a motel room that was shaped like an Indian tepee. We could only stay there one night because of renovations."

The next day, we inspected one tour of the Cave and then drove around four hours looking for another place to stay. We returned to get a cabin in the woods right next to the Cave. We were exhausted and we had no money. We were almost out of the woods right next to the Cave. We were almost out of the woods right next to the Cave. ## Easy on the Bride

First Party? Simple Setting, Simple Menu

Just a few weeks ago, you were the bride of the ball, the star of the show, the world's most admired and adored girl.

But today, you're nervous, lack confidence and feel like you're on trial.

An engagement? Ask your bride how she felt in July, how she felt preparing for and serving her first dinner party.

Relax. Just exercise your imagination and good taste, and your party will be a delight.

If you're having a big group, more people than you are serving place settings to accommodate a number of proper setting, with complementary napkins and a floral arrangement or centerpiece will make your table lovely.

Don't be afraid to pair simple, elegant dishes with elegant main dishes and place mats, silver, glass and china. Don't overdo colors and textures, but feel about what you can't get to wedding gifts.

The most expensive crystal, silver and china aren't anything when a woman gets ready to serve.

KEEP the setting simple, linen balanced according to table shape and size. Also, which you can study to go by of color and design.

For example, many objects of contrasting color.

Instead of serving several courses, serve a large quantity of certain foods. If your dinner isn't a formal one.

Portions also can be prepared in advance and placed on a warmer.

This method saves you with just one thing — your main course — to watch and tend after the party starts.

And if you're a size bride, that course will be an easy one. Leave the complicated dishes for later parties, when you're not so cooking like a champion.

Mothers To Start Nursery

A group of seven mothers will conduct a nursery school beginning July 13 for 3-5-year-olds.

The preschool will be divided into two classes of 15 students. The first, which will begin at 9:30 a.m., will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Registration will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. Nursery school sessions will last from 9 to 3 to mid-May, but not be held.

EACH class will be supervised by two teachers, Mrs. William Koshak, 218 S. W. 6th, Mount Prospect, and Mrs. William Koshak, 218 S. W. 6th, Mount Prospect, and Mrs. William Koshak, 218 S. W. 6th, Mount Prospect.

Class activity will include painting, story-telling, singing, playing a rhythm band, and taking field trips.

Interested mothers may register their children at Arlington Heights, 392-4643.

Kindergarten Registration In Dist. 25

Parents wishing to register new students in kindergarten through fifth grade in the Dist. 25 system can do so at the district's Administration Building at 301 W. South, until Aug. 5. They are asked to call CL 3410 before-hand for an appointment.

After August 1 all lower grade schools will be open for new registration.

Registration to the district's junior high schools (grades six through eight) will continue to be taken in the three junior high school buildings throughout the summer.

Watch For Bogus Checks

The Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce has issued a warning to its members regarding bogus checks.

The checks are made payable to Margaret Chorney (1124 Tyrell, Park Ridge) and signed by various people. Scarcely the owner of the checks will present them to her house and local security guard of Mrs. Chorney, who recently lost both of these identification cards.

Petition Seeks to Block $8 Million Apt. Project

Buildings To Be Near Rob Roy

BY JACK A. VANDERBYN

A group of 150 residents from the three subdivisions in Mount Prospect Heights have filed petitions with the Cook County Zoning Board of Appeals protesting an $8 million apartment development on the Rob Roy Golf Driving range property.

Petitions were delivered to McDonald Ames, Bonnie Brook and Campbell subdivisions by Warren Friberg and Vincent Hoffman.

The petitions, which were filed in just one evening, according to Friberg and Hoffman, protest that the proposed $8 million apartment development proposed by Kenney Development is divided into two 15-acre tracts and is located on the Rob Roy Golf Driving range, west of Wolf Rd. in Prospect Heights. Mr. McDonald is the present owner of the property. If the zoning variation from single-family residential to multipurpose is granted, McDonald plans to build a 150-unit apartment complex.

The development has been presented by Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights and School Dist. 26 as well as by property owners.

Friberg and Hoffman said that the residents of the area are not making their protest just to maintain the open space recreational area.

"We would not protest if the land were going to be developed in single-family residential tradition," Friberg said. Friberg and Hoffman are residents of McDonald Ames, a subdivision of about 200 homes in the $20,000 to $35,000 price adjacent to Rob Roy.

"The apartment complex would be at our back door," Friberg said. "We have invested a lot of money to maintain the area as single-family residential."

Hearings on the proposed development was conducted by the County Zoning Board of Appeals on June 15. As of year-day, no decision was reached by the county board.

Mayor Daniel Conners of Mount Prospect reiterated the village's opposition to the apartments and the zoning change last night.

"This will be all the way through the courts if the zoning board grants the change," Conners said.

The mayor indicated that the village of Mount Prospect would not residents of the area in conducting litigation against the property owners if the zoning change is granted.

VFW Beef Dinner July 16

Arlington Post 1961 of Veterans of Foreign Wars is planning a beef dinner to be held at the clubhouse at 811 N. York on July 16. There will be dancing and all the best you can eat.

The Beatles are coming to Chicago on Aug. 12 — and a Mount Prospect man has plenty of double tickets for the one-night performance at International Amphitheatre stadium, Neil Ryd, 802 Oak-Deer, is the man to see for Beatle Tickets. For those who find it impossible to believe, the reason Ryd has the tickets is that they were turned over to him to sell for the benefit of the Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago. Ryd is chief engineer at the institution. Tickets for choice center seats for both afternoon and evening performances of the Beatle Show will be available in "Beatle Mania" in Mount Prospect on Thursday, July 7. Ryd and his wife Joyce will set up a stand at 12 E. Jones St. in downtown Mount Prospect to sell the $10 tickets. The "Byl Beatle Show" will be at the southeast entrance to the Mount Prospect State Bank. Of the 210 ticket cost.

Norbert Bruns Ceta Promotion

NORBERT A. BRUNS has been promoted to district manager of Anson Engineering Company's modern register effective July 1. The promotion was announced by Lynn A. Williams, president of the R.R. Grove Village Firm. Bruns, who will headquarter in Philadelphia, and his wife, Patricia, have four children and live at 641 N. Wynn in Evanston.

Ryd said that $4.25 is a tax deductible deduction to the hospital. Children's Memorial is a 231 bed hospital serving the medical needs of children from the greater Chicago metropolitan area. It carries the largest free care program of any Illinois private voluntary hospital. Last year, free patient care amounted to $1,300,000. This money comes from activities such as Ryd's Beatle Ticket Sale. More than 8,000 youngsters were hospitalized at Children's Memorial last year. Over 65,000 patients a year visit the hospital's out-patient clinic. The Beatles have always proven to be a sell-out attraction in Chicago and tickets for this auction are expected to be in great demand. The four Beatles long hairs have performed a set of musical sounds into a multi-million dollar fortune, a mass hysteria and a decoration from their Queen. This is an excellent opportunity for parents to purchase tickets for their youngsters, contribute to a good cause and help make a Mount Prospect man better able to serve the institution that he knows and loves so well.

A Mystery Tenant

Living in Tally Ho?

BY GEORGE HAMILTON
There's a mystery resident in the abandoned Tally Ho apartments in Mount Prospect. There could be.

Every Friday the Mount Prospect Fire Department checks the empty building at 830 and Rt. 53. When the flames break, the doors are closed and locked.

A day reporter who passed there daily has noticed that the doors are open again every Thursday.

Upon exploring the inside of the apartment, the reporter has noticed that three rooms in one apartment have always been locked. The doors were equipped with a secret latch by the builders so that guests would get into a room if a child suddenly took the door from the inside.

Thursday the day reporter unlocked the latch to see what was inside these three rooms. Unlike the rest of the building, they were clean, subzero windows and the floors appeared to have been swept clean recently. Shining upon a door of a closet, the reporter made a surprising discovery.

4 Towns Urged To Unite Their Water Supplies

By JACK A. VANDERBYN

DAMP Water Commission, serving the municipalities of Des Plaines, Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Palatine, is exploring the possibility of going into the water utility business.

William Matt, chairman of DAMP, appeared before the Mount Prospect Village Board Tuesday night and outlined a proposal that DAMP purchase all of the water works, pumping stations and facilities of the four municipal water companies and operate them as one company.

Here's Final Vote Tally In Primary

It's official. Eugene Schickman and David Regner are the Republican candidates for the Illinois House of Representatives in the Nov. 8 general election.

There was about a question about Schickman's career victory for the nomination at the June 14 primary. Regner and Robert Hesse, Palatine, were in a close race right down to the wire and official returns required the Cook County Clerk show that Mount Prospect's Regner won by a 548 vote margin.

Schickman, an Arlington Heights mountaineer, and Regner seeking his first term in the Illinois House, lost Democratic Eugenia Chapman, also an Arlington Heights mountaineer, and Bernard Peikin, Northbrook veteran legislator, in the Nov. 8 election.

THREE of the four candidates will be elected. The 3d Representative district includes Barrington, Elmhurst, Hanover, Palatine, Schaumburg and Wheeling Townships and parts of Northfield and Mount Townships in its limits.

Returns in the closely contested race, at least for the second spot on the ballot, reflect the large margin of Schickman's victory.

While Regner carried four townships to Schickman's three, Schickman was strong where the votes were heavy. Regner carried 13.

Under the plan outlined by Matt, DAMP would pay the municipalities a fair, approved value for their water systems and would then operate the utility as one system, selling water to all four communities.

Matt said such a plan would create a community that would save water for a period of time to receive its supply from one source of the communities.

Such a system would be operated for your benefit. Matt said Mount Prospect residents would be interested in pursuing the matter and participating in the plan.

There were two other candidates in the race. They were William L. Moore of Arlington Heights and Bill Means, Buffalo Grove.

MOORE carried only one of the 203 in the district and garnered a total vote of 4,498 1/2. Means failed to carry a single precinct and his vote total was 752 1/2.

Schickman's official tally, based on a phenomenal showing in Wheeling Township, where he carried up a 7 to 0 plurality, won the vote was 24,614 1/2. Regner finished with a total vote of 14,728 and Hesse third place vote total was 11,380.

Roundup For The Day

By United Press International

Surveyor 'Go' Again On Moon

PASADENA, California — The cameras of the Surveyor mooncraft are due to grind away once again today in their lunar environment. The moon and Sea of Storms. The successful re-awakening of America's lonely sentinel on the moon came yesterday after two weeks of frigid silence during the lunar night and more than a week of wake up calls from earth stations.

Dodges, God, Killed By Car

ROCKFORD, Illinois — A 13-year-old Rockford girl, Janet Sapiro, was struck and killed by a car last night while she tried to race her bicycle away from a dog which was chasing her. The accident occurred along Alpine Road near Rockford. The driver of the car was 22-year-old Jack Walker, also of Rockford.

Here's What You'd Pay In Proposed Utility Tax

Levy Would Equal 50 Pct. of Realty Tax

In dollars and cents the proposed 5 per cent toronado damage-utility tax would mean an increase of more than 50 per cent over the real estate taxes now paid by the average Arlington Heights home owner. And once imposed it probably would not be lifted.

The 50 per cent increase would be levied on the average Arlington Heights home owner. And once imposed it probably would not be lifted.

The other members agreed. There was general consensus among the four community members present that the tax would probably not be lifted.

"This is a very serious step," Brainerd said to the commission. "The more money a tax once imposed over lifted."

Brainerd said his figure was based on the average real estate tax rate of 25,000. The property on which the tax would be levied is a 100,000.

According to Brainerd, such a household pays $55.00 a year in real estate taxes. The tax would be a 50 per cent, or $27.50 a year in additional tax.

Real property taxes now account for two-thirds of the tax revenue collected by the city.

The Village Manager L. A. Hanson explained the advantage of such a utility tax is that it spreads the tax burden to those who use the water or sewer services.

What will the money be used for after the storm damage is paid? Probably capital improvements — downspouts parking, land for garbage collection and new fire trucks.

Money is needed now for all these things. Hanson said that the utility tax would have been enough to pay for them.

The storm damage fund for funds insurance, he said the commission. The estimated cost of the insurance is $1,805,310 for the improvement.

Hanson said that once the tax is imposed it will take a year or two to pay for these things.

The commission postponed the vote on the utility tax proposed last week by Hanson — until the next regular committee meeting July 18.

"We will need seven years," he said, "to make sure our system financially. In the same period of time, our assumed cost would be $10,000 to $12,000 per year."

Mrs. Robert Kottich, a member of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, said that the tax would be a burden on the poor.

Motorists Get A Real Score

A Des Plaines motorist had a harrowing few minutes in Arlington Heights yesterday.

Medicare Unit Here Proposed

Health Board Divided, But Approves Plan

The Arlington Heights Board of Health will recommend to the Village Board that the Board of Health be a certified agency to provide home health services under the Medicare provisions.

In order to delineate a home care program under Medicare, the village or an agency of the village would have to apply for status as a certified agency in the state.

Persons who receive 120 home nursing visits a year by nurse or other health workers, after release from a hospital under the hospital insurance benefits of the program.

One of the chairman of the Arlington Heights Board of Health will recommend to the Village Board that the Board of Health be a certified agency to provide home health services under the Medicare provisions.

Dr. Develier remained enthusiastic in his support of the program on the local level.

"I vote an unequivocal no," said Develier.

"In this village we should be able to provide our own care. We can handle it on the local level and do it cheaper," he said.

"The board of health should set up the health care for the village. I don't think a third party agency can care for a village. I think it's a Philadelphia lawyer's dream," Develier said.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS Public Health Nurse Mrs. Marie Cozart, who is secretary for the board of health, said she has not received any inquiry about the Medicare home nursing program since it was initiated July 1.

In March, before the program started, she received as many as five calls a day, she said. Mrs. Cozart said she has no definite plans to pursue the program.

The village manager, L. A. Hanson, said that the village board has not received any inquiry about the Medicare home nursing program since it was initiated July 1.

Persons interested in the program may bring them to the gallery between noon and 5 p.m.

Registration will be taken by Charles Farmer, 4 S. Regner, 477-2285.

The gallery will be closed during the summer and reduction.

Two Girls Hurt As Car Hits Home

Little damage was done to the brick house (left) of the home at 701 N. Chicago, when a car driven by Betty Arnold crashed into it yesterday. The front of the car, though, indicates the force of the collision.

The two girls, 12 and 13, were injured. The car was driven by Betty Arnold, 701 N. Chicago, who was driving the car at the time of the collision.

Housing Project Meets Opposition

A pre-negotiation hearing on a request to rezone 345 acres of land near the intersection of Buffalo Grove and Hunt Road was continued last night by the Planning Commission.

The request, made by Chicago developers in which the property is to be developed as a residential area, is to allow the development of the land.

The specific rezoning request for the property, which is a maximum housing power, and that the number of additional children the development would bring into the area would be a burden.

"The estimate of the developers is that the project would accommodate at least two more children to our district. This would necessitate at least two more schools," he said.

Dr. Gill estimated that the development would raise the housing power of the district to a million dollars and that the number of additional children the development would bring into the area would be a burden.

Some opposition was voiced at the meeting from representatives of the two school districts.

"I have seen a number of developers and all have said the project would help our system financially. In the same period of time, our assumed cost would be $10,000 to $12,000 per year."

Mrs. Robert Kottich, a member of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, said that the tax would be a burden on the poor.

Historical Museum Up For Study

The proposed Historical Society museum will be the topic of a meeting tonight at 7 p.m. in the village hall sponsored by the society and the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of community organizations have been invited to bring plans for the museum to house the collection of the society.

The Heller house at 506 N. DuSable has been proposed as a possible site for the museum. The property on which the house stands was recently acquired by the library board for the site of the new library.

Dr. Develier remained enthusiastic in his support of the program on the local level.

"I vote an unequivocal no," said Develier.

"In this village we should be able to provide our own care. We can handle it on the local level and do it cheaper," he said.

"The board of health should set up the health care for the village. I don't think a third party agency can care for a village. I think it's a Philadelphia lawyer's dream," Develier said.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS Public Health Nurse Mrs. Marie Cozart, who is secretary for the board of health, said she has not received any inquiry about the Medicare home nursing program since it was initiated July 1.

In March, before the program started, she received as many as five calls a day, she said. Mrs. Cozart said she has no definite plans to pursue the program.

The village manager, L. A. Hanson, said that the village board has not received any inquiry about the Medicare home nursing program since it was initiated July 1.

Persons interested in the program may bring them to the gallery between noon and 5 p.m.

Registration will be taken by Charles Farmer, 4 S. Regner, 477-2285.

The gallery will be closed during the summer and reduction.

Medicare Unit Here Proposed

Health Board Divided, But Approves Plan

The Arlington Heights Board of Health will recommend to the Village Board that the Board of Health be a certified agency to provide home health services under the Medicare provisions.

In order to delineate a home care program under Medicare, the village or an agency of the village would have to apply for status as a certified agency in the state.

Persons who receive 120 home nursing visits a year by nurse or other health workers, after release from a hospital under the hospital insurance benefits of the program.

One of the chairman of the Arlington Heights Board of Health will recommend to the Village Board that the Board of Health be a certified agency to provide home health services under the Medicare provisions.

Dr. Develier remained enthusiastic in his support of the program on the local level.

DOCTOR SAYS

Peptic Ulcers

W.G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q - Within an hour or two after I eat I get gnawing hunger pains. Eating stops them. Is this a sign of an ulcer?

A - Very likely. Typically the ulcer pain can be located with the tip of one finger just above the navel and doesn't come on until 2 to 3 hours after a full meal. Because there are other possible causes for your pain, you should have a gastric acidity and stomach X-rays.

Q - For 17-year-old daughter has had a peptic ulcer for about a year. What foods would irritate it? Can ulcer patients have foods that contain fat? Is there a complete cure for this disease?

A - Your daughter should avoid heat, whole wheat bread, fried foods and rough fibrous vegetables and fruits, especially raw. Fat in the form of butter, cream and margarine is easily digested and should be allowed. With proper treatment most ulcers heal in about 3 weeks but the recurrence rate is high unless you can find and remove the underlying cause, which is often nervous tension.

Q - For 18 months I have had a nose like anything in my left ear. I was told that it is polypoid. If taken for 6 to 12 months, would help. What do you think?

A - Head noise described as humming, ringing or fluttering are a common accompaniment of advancing years. They are caused by hardening of the arteries in the inner ear and they vary in intensity. Polypoid is a combination of vitamins that helps some but not all victims of this annoying condition.

Please send your questions and comments to W.G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Balloon Bang-Up

At one time, balloons and confetti were scattered on the grass. The balloons were cut open by the Arlington Heights Park District. At Recreation Park, three girls from left: Pamela Johnson, 7, of 415 N. Belmont; Susan Graham, 10, of 315 N. Wilshire Ln.; and Jane Fitzgerald, 7, of 207 N. # Court Dismisses Suit Against Savings-Loan

$2 Million Sought In Damages Case

A $2 million damage suit by the Arlington Heights National Bank against the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Assn. was dismissed yesterday in circuit court. Judge Albert Heister ruled that it did not state "a cause of action," or breach of the law.

The suit was filed after the appearance of the association's representatives at a public hearing of the village board regarding the cutting by the village of Davis R. between Dutton and Campbell to the bank. The bank said these appearances caused the village

THE SUIT filed March 30, 1965, named the Savings and Loan association and John W. Coffin, president; Irving T. Kishner, chairman of the board; and Donald F. Morton, executive vice president — as defendants.

In a statement following yesterday's court action Coffin said:

Expect Cellar Decision

A decision on the status of the cellar, a teenage night club at Salem and Davis may be reached sometime today.

Village Manager L.A. Hanson said yesterday he had not decided whether to remove the cellar, but he said he was leaning toward the idea of removing it. The cellar has been closed for nearly four weeks. But, he said, he expected to decide the matter today after conferring with Village Attorney Jack Rogers.

The Village Youth Council recommended last week that the cellar be allowed to remain, but Hanson said he was leaning toward the idea of removing it. The cellar has been closed for nearly four weeks. But, he said, he expected to decide the matter today after conferring with Village Attorney Jack Rogers.

Girl Hurt Seriously In Crash

A 16-year-old Arlington Heights girl was seriously injured last evening when the car in which she was riding collided with another in front of the Randhurst Shopping Center.

The girl, Darlene Socha, of 1533 N. Arlington Heights Rd., underwent surgery last night at Holy Family Hospital to close extensive lacerations on the head when her head was struck through the windshield of the car.

She was a passenger in the car driven by Thomas Kachman, 19, also of the same address. He was also treated at Holy Family for minor face cuts and bruising.

Kachman's car collided with the auto driven by Charles Madelling, 49, of 715 Lake Street Dr., Barrington, at the intersection of Road and Foundry Eads. Madelling was apparently unharmed.

Monica Prosser, 16-year-old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith said he had last interviewed all the parties involved before he went home last night. Smith refused to tell what he learned in an extensive interview with Madelling at the Mount Prospect station house.

Tale Tellers' At Country Club

The feature is located in the Old Orchard Country Club.

"Child's Chatter," a comedy by Joe Levine, was the first of the series. The comedy was performed by the "No Time for Tears" troupe, which is made up of adults at the Shurey beginning Wednesday, July 20.

History Museum Drive Launched

Plans for an historical museum for Arlington Heights were announced last night at a meeting of community organizations sponsored by the Arlington Heights Village Board of Trustees.

The plan call for the moving of the nearly 100-year-old Heller house off the site of the new library, and the use of the house as the museum. The museum committee, headed by Virgil K. Horvath, chairman of the board, and Danyel Dushoff, curator of the historical society, George Buchman, library board member, Mrs.

Youth Shot

A 16-year-old Arlington Heights youth is reported in good condition in Northwest Community Hospital after suffering a gunshot wound in the left foot Wednesday evening.

Police and Kenneth Starnes of 1130 N. Dutton sustained the wound while sitting in a car at Nichols Rd. west of Arlington Heights Rd.

The wound, according to police, was inflicted by a .22 caliber rifle, with which Starnes said he had been hunting.

County Sheriff's Police were notified and questioned the youth, in their report that Starnes was to have reported for induction into the armed forces this morning.

'She Told Me She Knew How To Ride'

THIS is to express our gratitude on behalf of the village and we hope the drive is successful. We look forward to broad based community support for the project. Wood said.

THE FUND raising campaign was last launched by Wood when he collected a $100 check to the museum fund. Village Manager L.A. Hanson announced that The Arlington Day continued $1,000 toward the fund.

Wood and members who said the group of the historical society's growth and need for a permanent home to house their collection were Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Florence Henderson, president of the library board.

High Accident Area

By Catherine O'Donnell

Carol May, who lives on S. Fern was on her way to the shopping center with her two young daughters. She was driving down Gibbons toward Grove. At the same time, Fred Brunson of Mount Prospect had driven off of Glenwood at S. Fern, after, almost at Prospect High School and had turned west on Grove toward Gibbons.

They met, violently, disastrously and unfortunately. Carol May's body damaged her head a bad wound on Fred Brunson's chest, so one was hurt.

This could go on the police report as just another accident but according to residents in that area, it is an accident that should have been prevented and wouldn't have happened if the YIELD RIGHT OFF WAY signs had been replaced by STOP signs when the request was made a long time ago.

Carol got a ticket, although she had stopped and started just as Fred's car started through the intersection. To the people who live in the neighborhood, the sound of squealing brakes, it was not the first of either driver. It was the fault of the traffic sign.

The intersection is a positive hazard to the children using Evergreen Park, to the hundreds of small football players and their fans who double park on the street during the game and cannot know their children are off on bicycles, heading toward the park and to drivers overlooking it by blind corners. If ever a street needed a STOP sign, it is Glenwood at Grove.

Incidentally, the Arlington Heights police who responded to the call were wonderful. One woman who was calling them had just lost her telephone when motorcycle Patrolman Ron Strohman was on the scene. He'd been home for lunch.

It was then that four men, Sergeant Phil O'Connell and Patrolmen Joe Schaefer, William Salter and Ed Kane were there and everything was under their calm, professional control.

Now if the traffic engineers will act as efficiently and promptly as the ballistics for neighbors at Gibbons and Grove will breathe them, Stratford Open.

Tally Ho Suit Is Underway

Mount Prospect began presenting evidence yesterday in its lawsuit to obtain permission to tear down the unfinished Tally Ho apartment. Located at Algonquin Rd. and Route 53.

The hearing was held in the office of Mayor in Champaign Avenue, 1 N. LaSalle, Chicago.

Samuel Crooks, former village prosecutor, appeared at the hearing in response to a subpoena ordering him to turn over records in his possession regarding the Tally Ho case.

Crooks refused to produce the records, citing an attorney's right of lien, which attorneys claim to retain the files of a case until its fees have been paid.

ATTORNEY Martin Smith, who representing Mount Prospect in the Tally Ho case, and that Crooks has some of the original building permits for the project, said other items pertinent to the lawsuit.

Crooks readily admitted having the records, but maintained he has a right to hold them until his $1,500 fee for his work in the case is paid.

According to Crooks, Mayor Arvey agreed with him and refused to issue an order requiring that the records be produced.

Crooks told The Day that he was hired to work on the case by former village attorney Edward H. Hovey.

"When (mayor) Don Conrad of the House of Representatives was in the city, he was told to do his best," Crooks said. "I am still waiting to be paid and am legally entitled to withhold the Tally Ho files until I am paid."

ARVEY reportedly told the village representatives that they can either pay Crooks' bill or obtain the files or proceed without them.

Conrad for Mount Prospect has been submitting evidence to prove its contention that Tally Ho is unsound.

Seek Record Record

At 6:30 a.m. Wednesday the boys, camped in the Bryant basement, decided to turn on the record player. It is still going. It will be going, they say, until they have heard both sides of 60 long playing records and 25 45 rpm records.

They estimate they will be finished at 7 or 8 a.m. today. The record player is turned on low so the family routine is not disturbed. They boys say they won't sleep until the records are played.

While the records are on, Jim Bryant, 16, Bob Michaels, 15, and Larry Williams, 14, are in the city, and until the playing cards are

Vantage Point

... by Jack Vandermyn

Who said, "Time pays for itself"? Lucky Thomas is certainly a nice guy and a success from whom you will never find. Thomas, who since entering with his former project, St. Jude's Hospital, is fond of Chicago and the Chicago suburbs.

"Every good thing that has been happened to me, has helped me into Chicago," Thomas said in a local appearance recently.

The latest "good thing" to happen to the popular personality was a contribution of more than $10,000 from a pair of Chicago automobile dealers, George Bond and Al Foreman.

They operate Bond Rambler at 222 N. Center Ave. and a special tribute to their customers — said to St. Jude — they set aside a certain amount of profit from every sale to donate to St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis, Tenn.

Their contribution, including this year's check for $10,000, total more than $30,000. The money is earmarked by Thomas for use in the hospital's maintenance fund — a vital part of the institution's operation as it strives into the future.

WE VISITED St. Jude's Hospital a few years ago and were impressed by the quality of research and treatment underway at the Memphis institution.

Luckin's research is close to the heart of George Bond. He lost a loved one in the disease and his way of doing something a little extra is reflected in his new traditional contribution.

When you think about some-month's business? How often do the good works of the Lanes and the Morris and the Jacobs and the Weiss and the Weiss just pass?

Too often, the image of this auto sales industry is not a good one.

Actions speak as the institution's contribution by George Bond and Al Foreman seldom make news, yet they are commendable in this industry.

NEED A JOBS? Shouldn't be a big problem. Latest statistics show that only 2.4 per cent of the Chicago labor market is unemployed.

As the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry puts it, if you can wait, you can wait.

During April, the steel Chicago labor force was 3,870,000.

who are perfectly able to find good jobs who just refuse to accept their responsibility as citizens.

They say the odds, in many cases, will send the odds.

We have our citizens who refuse to accept their responsibility as citizens, though not as dramatically as those who refuse to work.

Equally as destructive to our society and dangerous to our freedom, however, are those who refuse to vote — to participate in their community or in their own destinies.

As long as there is society, there will be parasites. The least to parasites who are capable with their refusal to work. And we should equally as passionately urge you to exercise their own responsibility.

Hardly Competition

In last week's Arlington Herald, the Padlock Publishing Co.'s local weekly newspaper, was a Page 1 editorial pointing out the difficulty of the circulation strength of the Herald.

The editorial said Padlock's first failure after the Herald's position was in danger after the Arlington Day was launched were groundless. "We expected, frankly, to be hurt," said the Herald.

We are pleased, indeed, that this is the case. It was never our aim to hurt the Herald. It has always been our belief that there is room in this community for the head wrappings of the Padlock management and the appeals to other suburban publishers to help lead off The Day at the pass.

The editorial spoke of The Day as competitors of the Herald, and we suggest that it is unwise for Padlock to do so.

Ours is a daily newspaper, reporting the happenings in Arlington Heights within hours after they occur. Padlock must wait sometimes as much as eight days after a fact before they are able to report it.

A good case in point is the reporting by The Day and the Herald on the devastating tornado that struck our area on June 9. On that day, even while emergency crews were still clearing debris, the Day carried a full report of the storm including a page of photos. The Herald was able to offer any coverage of the story.

This is hardly competition.

The Herald editorial told of the increase in circulation and advertising of the Herald, and we gain they are, but the allusion to The Day's record as "circulation and advertising figures handed about" was hardly in keeping with the editorial's tone of confident strength.

We make no secret of our circulation figures, and our advertising lineage is available to anyone who cares to measure it. And we are sure Padlock has been doing this. We agree them to continue.

It is true, as the editorial said, that the Herald is the only local medium whose circulation figures are verified by ABC (Audit Bureau of Circulation). But this is not a legitimate point of comparison with The Day. Perhaps the editorial writer was unaware that our newspaper has not been qualified for membership in ABC because of the short time it has been in publication. As soon as we are eligible, we, too, will be able to certify our circulation.

We are happy to learn that the Herald is doing well, but we venture the suggestion that in measuring its success it find a yardstick it will be better able to live with than The Day.

The ABC figure the Herald presented covered advertising for the entire year ending March 31. The Day was in existence during only two months of that period and had published only 44 issues. Although the Herald called this "the stiffest comparison" it ever faced, the fact of those 44 issues on its circulation had advertising could have been only negligible.

The ABC figures next March 31 will reflect a more accurate picture. We look forward to seeing it.

Now, joining in the spirit of review, let's take a look at The Day — at objective look.

We began publishing on Jan. 31 of this year — just six months ago. During the first four weeks we distributed The Day free to give the people here a chance to evaluate it. (We are sure the Padlock editorial didn't really mean to imply that this was reprehensible. It is a time-honored and recommended procedure for any new publication.)

On Feb. 28 The Day went to paid circulation with more than 6,000 daily subscribers. This acceptance is regarded as a newspaper community as phenomenal.

And the height of the summer doldrums with more than 300 subscriptions suspended for vacations, our paid circulation stands at 6,860.

We are not offering this figure for "handouts" about but as the news item of our circulation manager. Until ABC taken over we will continue to provide such statistical statements to interested persons.

Our advertising volume has shown a steady and healthy increase. We are still too young to have a background for comparison. We can only say that in such month of our short existence our lineage has been greater than the month before.

How are we doing? We think very well. And let us, apparently, do the people of Arlington Heights who have indicated their judgment in many gratifying and encouraging ways.

If in this editorial we have been more temperate than circumstances might justify, please believe it has been intentional.

Since coming to Arlington Heights we have made a conscientious effort to steer clear of controversy with our "competitor." We have believed that the newspaper business can profit on one.

Should we have been in position of non-belligerence to being misinterpreted, we ought to be forced to change it we will do so or to everything else, substantially.

We have reached the point where we are running out of words to turn.

No Drop in Fall Hemline

This is the second of six articles on fall styles introduced by high-fashion designers.

By JERILYN WATSON
Fashion Editor

Polish up your knees, ladies. Short skirts will be in as through the fall and winter seasons.

The current fashion collections being shown in New York have re-established the knee hemline as fact. Only one rebel, Jacques Fath, touched the calf with his skirts.

Almost everything is to the knee or higher, but skirts about one inch below the knee—sometimes called "puffy" skirts—have gone the way of all fashions.

Skirts again in the washroom of fashion, replacing jupes and so-called skirt suits.

For tonight, the costume in the featured spread in the New Yorker collection is almost negligible the suit to finish.

EVERYTHING has a companion—coats, baby overalls, skirts, dresses.

There are coats with coordinated dresses. Some are short (mini-coats), some are long (some 7/8 length, the same for the "long" skirt).

The shape of their companion dresses follows the coat shape—tint with tint, slim with slim. The current coats are likely to not to have for (not to have) things.

Mrs. Charles Moser (left) looks at the table and floral arrangements that were her first-order award in the recent "Judging the Judge" contest of the National Accredited Flower Show Judges of Illinois, Inc. Also studying the arrangement are Mrs. Lawrence Brown (center) and Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Moser, a student judge, was cited in a competition of settings of tables for two for a mid-night supper.

Diane Baker Engaged

Mrs. C. D. Baker of 1425 St. James Pl., Arlington Heights, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Diane to Gerard Ogryl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Ogryl, 566 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights. Miss Baker, 1944 graduate of Arlington High School, is employed as a secretary by the Pure Oil Co. in Palatine. Ogryl, a 1942 graduate of Arlington High School, attends Northwestern Illinois University in DeKalb. No date has been set for the wedding.

Band Concert

The fourth concert in the Palatine Park District's open air series "Concerts in the Park" will be presented tonight.

After lunch of Arlington Heights will be featured on the sliding trombone.

The concert is sponsored by the district and the Village of Palatine each Friday at 8 p.m. through August 12th at the bandstand in Palatine Community Park at Northwest Hwy. and Palatine Rd.

Three-piece costume includes skirt, jacket and overalls. A s. s. a. Turtleneck and scarf are worn frequently as necktie alternatives.

FABRICS and colors get double play, jersey, for example, is teamed with soft tweed, wool with suede or vinyl, grey flannel with chiffon or crepe and cashmere with tweed.

In the fabric category, the designers seem to admit most wool crepe, Swedish, melton and gabardine.

Color is used with more nerve and this time is more a provocation, full collection. Shocking pink or orange just over ready looks and easy provides background for red or orange.

Forbidden combinations of the past are this year's big color news—plum with blue and pink, lavender with grey and purple with orange.

AMONG the most elegant outfits in the fall collections are likely to not to have for (not to have) things.

Black and white also makes a striking, though more traditional, combination. If you're tall, you may love the new coats in pastels, choice, too, over solid color dresses that pick up a hue from the pastel look. There's a large assortment of coordinated look, which generally holds stripes for your taste in design. The figure Mormon Mylar interprets the costume for fall with a windproof plaid coat (left) over a shift for autumn. The coat is in orange and black tatters, the shift orange. Jersey finds its feminine in vinyl for Junior Sophisticates (right). The two-piece grey jersey dress is topped by a red vinyl jacket.

Sun Tan Looks Good But, Watch Out

If you're reading this newspaper, assumed out on a town chair in the sun, you may be in danger.

Not from the possibility of spontaneous combustion, either. Your tan and skin may be in danger.

The doctor's warning is that the sun is the main cause of skin cancer, and even spots, but so can cause freckles and brown spots. The evidence is clear that chronic exposure to sunlight can be a major factor in the production of precancerous and cancerous conditions of the skin," cautions the American Medical Association.

The doctors hasten to add that if you're unable about believing a tan, there's nothing to be alarmed about.

The danger, of course, is in overlooking a pleasant summer pastime—exposing yourself to the sun.

FIRST of ALL, restrict your exposure to the sun to 15 minutes daily for a starter. Then, gradually increase exposure by five minutes daily.

If you tan, sunbath in the morning or late afternoon, when the sun's ultraviolet rays are thinned through the atmosphere. The blocks some injurious wavelengths.

Use a sunbath lotion, preferably one with a non-irritating agent. If your skin is dry, use an oily or cream lotion. Remember, though, that no lotion can filter all the sun's rays, and don't rely on it for complete protection.

In patient, it takes days for natural tanning to reach its peak. Once you have a sun tan, avoid sitting in the sun for hours at a time. The tan you have can't completely protect you from subsequent rays.

If, DESPITE preventive measures you get sunburned, here are some tips:

Bathe the skin in cool or lukewarm water containing a cup of cornstarch, oatmeal powder or baking soda.

Apply an oily lotion to the burned area after bathing. A mixture of olive oil and built of magnesium can be very effective.

Leave the skin uncovered and avoid friction on the burned area.

Consult your physician if the skin becomes swollen or blistered. Blisters can be so serious and painful as to burn from a hot grill.

Ideal Benefit

No Fuss, No Bother No Guests, No Party

Are you going to the benefit party for the Youth Guidance Council, August 14, 1966, at the Country Club? Well, author is hereby said. A recent survey of guests expected at the July 14 event.

The novel party that isn't a party was attended by the youth members of the Youth Guidance Council.

Robert E. Hock of Princeton, chairman of the party group, we must accept our committee, as provided the mailing of 4,000 invitations to Chicago and suburban areas.

The party was held in the ballroom of the Country Club, which was the only place where the party could be held. The party was held in the ballroom of the Country Club, which was the only place where the party could be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blair of Lake Bluff (they're going on vacation in Maine), Mr. and Mrs. George Stone of Winnetka (they're jumping out in Michigan) and everyone else you know.

Youth Guidance, which consists troubled young people and their families, is located at 127 N. Dearborn, Chicago. An affiliate of the Episcopal Church and the Church Federation of Greater Chicago, it is an agency of the Metropolitan Council of Mercy.

Delta Gamma Volunteers

High altitude members of the Delta Gamma Sorority arrived as volunteer workers at the recent convention of the American Medical Association in Chicago. The convention was held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City. The Delta Gamma Sorority is a national organization of women, founded in 1888. It is one of the largest and most influential of the Greek-letter organizations in the United States.

Sight conversation and aid to the blind is the nationwide project of Delta Gamma.

The water forms a chubbin for the ball and the club has the bounce of the cushion."

"You've got it all into it," said on this shot — "aim on the sand just back of the ball."

Line up with your left foot opposite the ball and with the head of your club wedge open wide. Take the club back to the outside of the target, about roughly halfway back, keeping the club face true.

When coming into the ball the clubhead should cover the sand about one and one-half feet. The long swing will prevent the head from dipping deep into the sand. The ball will slide freely by picking up the sand.

A point to remember is to keep the shoulders back and the knees bent. The longer your backswing becomes.
